Cornelia Catlin Coulter Memorial Rome Scholarship

for summer travel to Rome for teachers and graduate students

The Cornelia Catlin Coulter Memorial Rome Scholarship is an award of approximately $6000 for study at the Summer Session of the School of Classical Studies or at the American Academy in Rome.

Eligibility and Requirements:

1. All applicants must be current members of CANE in good standing to apply for the award.
2. Priority will be given to applications from Latin teachers of secondary school, public or private, who teach within the geographical boundaries of CANE, but graduate students within the geographical boundaries of CANE may also apply.
3. It is understood that applicants will not be applying for the Coulter and the Endowment Scholarship in the same year.
4. Scholarship recipients are requested to file a written report with the Chairperson of the Scholarship Committee at the end of their study period.
5. Travel is expected to be completed during the year funds are awarded, otherwise funds must be returned to CANE in full.
